

English SMSC

We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
By delighting in creativity, particularly when children are working on independent pieces of writing By taking part in activities which help pupils to become more focused, connected and creative By being aware of one's own strengths and areas for development By sharing and learning from a wide variety of texts, and encouraging children to share their views on issues arising from them	By developing qualities of pride, commitment and perseverance By developing positive behaviours and resilient learners By sharing and learning from a wide variety of texts, which prompt children's thinking about values such as respect, tolerance and fairness By supporting children to share constructive feedback with each other	By developing a sense of belonging and self-esteem through team work By providing children with speaking and listening opportunities both in class and as part of the wider school By celebrating achievements in assembly time, in the newsletter and on Facebook By allowing older children to work with children lower down the school to develop English skills	By sharing and learning from a wide variety of texts from a range of time periods, cultures, countries and authors By studying historical literature, which gives the children the opportunity to appreciate history and culture By participating in trips to the theatre, and watching productions in school By providing children with speaking and listening opportunities, in which they can learn about other students' experiences and perspectives