

Links to SMSC in Science 2022

We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By demonstrating openness to the fact that some answers cannot be provided by Science. • By providing opportunities for children to learn about themselves and the world around them • By providing opportunities for children to use their imagination and creativity in scientific investigations and creating models to help understand different concepts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By providing opportunities for children to understand their and other's impact on the environment and how to look after the environment. • By offering children the chance to learn about inventions and scientific discoveries that have made the world a better place. • By considering that not all scientific developments are good and their impact on the world around us. • By considering different viewpoints and perspectives of issues linked to science. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By providing opportunities for children to work together on scientific investigations and projects. • By offering children the chance to learn about how we can work together to look after the world around us. • By offering children the opportunity to learn about different scientists and their contributions including female scientists. • By considering different viewpoints and perspectives of issues linked to science. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By learning about scientific discoveries and scientists from around the world and how they have shaped the world as we know it. • By providing opportunities for children to discuss and raise questions about scientific discoveries and their impact. • By providing children with a range of practical activities for them to learn and experience the world around them.